[1968 No. 34.]

[22nd April, 1968]

[Commencement.]

1. Discharge of certain oils into prohibited sea areas

(1) If any oil to which this section applies is discharged from a Nigerian ship into a part of the sea which, in relation to that ship, is a prohibited sea area, or if any mixture containing not less than 100 parts of oil to which this section applies is discharged from such a ship into such a part of the sea, the owner or master of the ship shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be guilty of an offence under this section.

(2) This section applies-

- (a) to crude oil, fuel and lubricating oil; and
- (b) to heavy diesel oil, and shall also apply to any other description of oil which may be prescribed under this subsection by order made by the Minister, having regard to the provisions of any subsequent Convention in so far as it relates to the prevention of pollution of the sea by oil, or having regard to the persistent character of oil of that description and the likelihood that it would cause pollution if discharged from a ship into a prohibited sea area.

(3) The Minister may, by regulations made under this subsection, make exceptions from the operation of subsection (1) of this section, either absolutely or subject to any prescribed conditions, and either generally or as respects particular classes of ships, or in relation to particular descriptions of oil or mixtures in prescribed circumstances, or in relation to particular areas of the sea.

(4) In this Act, "subsequent Convention" means any Convention subsequent to the Convention of 1954 to 1962 being a Convention relating to the aforesaid Convention, and accepted by the Federal Government of Nigeria.

2. Designation of prohibited sea areas

(1) For the purposes of this Act the areas of the sea designated by or in accordance with this section shall be prohibited sea areas.

(2) Subject to the following provisions of this section, the areas specified in the Schedule to this Act shall be prohibited sea areas.

[Schedule.]

(3) The Minister, if he considers it necessary to do so for the purpose of protecting the coast and territorial waters of Nigeria from pollution by oil, may by order designate any area of the sea outside the territorial waters of Nigeria and outside the areas specified in the Schedule to this Act as a prohibited sea area.

(4) For the purpose of giving effect to any variation of the prohibited zones referred to in the Convention of 1954 to 1962, in accordance with the provisions of that Convention or of any subsequent Convention, the Minister may by order vary any of the areas specified in the Schedule to this Act or declare that any area specified in that Schedule shall cease to be included therein.

[Schedule.]

(5) For the purpose of giving effect to any subsequent Convention, the Minister may by order designate as a prohibited sea area, any area of the sea, outside the territorial waters of Nigeria, which, apart from the order, is not a prohibited sea area.

(6) The power of the Minister under subsection (4) or (5) of this section shall be exercisable either generally or in relation to different classes of vessels or different circumstances or both.

3. Discharge of oil into the waters of Nigeria

(1) If any oil or mixture containing oil is discharged into waters to which this section applies from any vessel, or from any place on land, or from any apparatus used for transferring oil from or to any vessel (whether to or from a place on land or to or from another vessel), then subject to the provisions of this Act-

- (a) if the discharge is from a vessel, the owner or master of the vessel; or
- (b) if the discharge is from a place on land, the occupier of that place; or
- (c) if the discharge is from apparatus used for transferring oil from or to a vessel, the person in charge of the apparatus, is guilty of an offence under this section.

(2) This section applies to the following waters, that is-

- (a) the whole of the sea within the seaward limits of the territorial waters of Nigeria; and
- (b) all other waters (including inland waters) which are within those limits and are navigable by sea-going ships.

(3) The harbour authority may appoint a place within its jurisdiction where the ballast water of vessels in which a cargo of dangerous petroleum has been carried may be discharged into the waters of the harbour, at such times, and subject to such conditions, as the authority may determine, and, where a place is so appointed, the discharge of ballast water from such a vessel shall not constitute an offence under this section, if the ballast water is discharged at that place and at a time and in accordance with the conditions so determined and the ballast water contains no oil other than dangerous petroleum.

(4) In subsection (3) of this section, "dangerous petroleum" has the same meaning as in the Petroleum Act.

[Cap. PIO.]

4. Special defences under sections 1 and 3

(1) Where a person is charged with an offence under section 1 of this Act, or is charged with an offence under section 3 of this Act as the owner or master of a vessel, it shall be a defence to prove that the oil or mixture in question was discharged for the purpose of securing the safety of any vessel, or of preventing damage to any vessel or cargo or of saving life:

Provided that a defence under this subsection shall not have effect if the court is satisfied that the discharge of the oil or mixture was not necessary for the purpose alleged in the defence or was not a reasonable step to take in the circumstances.

(2) Where a person is charged as mentioned in subsection (1) of this section, it shall also be a defence to prove-

- (a) that the oil or mixture escaped in consequence of damage to the vessel, and that as soon as practicable after the damage occurred all reasonable steps were taken for preventing, or (if it could not be prevented) for stopping or reducing, the escape of oil or mixture; or

- (b) that the oil or mixture escaped by reason of leakage, that the leakage was not due to any want of reasonable care, and that as soon as practicable after the escape was discovered all reasonable steps were taken for stopping or reducing it.

(3) Where a person is charged with an offence under section 3 of this Act as the occupier of a place on land, or as the person in charge of any apparatus, from which oil or a mixture containing oil is alleged to have escaped, it shall be a defence to prove that the escape of the oil or mixture was not due to any want of reasonable care, and that as soon as practicable after the escape was discovered all reasonable steps were taken for stopping or reducing it.

(4) Without prejudice to subsection (3) of this section, it shall be a defence for the occupier of a place on land, who is charged with an offence under the last preceding section, to prove that the discharge was caused by the act of a person who was in that place without the permission (express or implied) of the occupier.

(5) Where a person is charged with an offence under section 3 of this Act in respect of the discharge of a mixture containing oil from a place on land, it shall (without prejudice to any other defence under this section) be a defence to prove-

- (a) that the oil was contained in an effluent produced by operations for the refining of oil;
- (b) that it was not reasonably practicable to dispose of the effluent otherwise than by discharging it into waters to which the last preceding section applies; and
- (c) that all reasonably practicable steps had been taken for eliminating oil from the effluent:

Provided that a defence under this subsection shall not have effect if it is proved that, at a time to which the charge relates, the surface of the waters into which the mixture was discharged from the place in question, or land adjacent to those waters, was fouled by oil, unless the court is satisfied that the fouling was not caused, or contributed to, by oil contained in any effluent discharged at or before that time from that place.

(6) Where any oil, or mixture containing oil, is discharged in consequence of-

- (a) the exercise of any power conferred by sections 273 and 275 of the Merchant Shipping Act (which relate to the removal of wrecks by the Receiver of Wreck);

and apart from this subsection, the person exercising the power under the said sections 273 and 275 or, as the case may be, the harbour authority exercising the power, (or a person employed by or acting on behalf of that person or authority) is guilty of an offence under section 1 of this Act or under section 3 of this Act, in respect of that discharge, the authority or person shall not be convicted of that offence unless it is shown that it or he failed to take such steps (if any) as were reasonable in the circumstances for preventing, stopping or reducing the discharge.

5. Equipment in ships to prevent oil pollution

(1) For the purpose of preventing or reducing discharges of oil and mixtures containing oil into the sea, the Minister may make regulations requiring Nigerian ships to be fitted with such equipment, and to comply with such other requirements, as may be prescribed.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) of this section, where any regulations made thereunder require ships to be fitted with equipment of a prescribed description, the regulations may provide that equipment of that description-

- (a) shall not be installed in a ship to which the regulations apply unless it is of a type tested and approved by a person appointed by the Minister;
